

SONOMA, OCTOBER 13, 1894.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Schocken keeps the best and cheapest groceries.

The Union Hotel is a first-class house in every respect.

Weyl's is the place to get a bargain in groceries.

The Union Hotel is a resort for families visiting Sonoma.

The Sonoma House is conducted as a first-class hotel by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher.

The best of beef, mutton, pork, veal, sausages, etc., at Weyl's meat market.

Schocken always keeps on hand a complete stock of fresh groceries and dry goods.

Weyl's meat market is supplied with everything kept in a first-class butcher shop.

Family visiting Sonoma will find the Sonoma House a first-class hotel in every respect.

L. Beilstein, our enterprising cooper, has erected a new sign in front of his establishment on Spain street.

If you want the very best of wine liquors or cigars go to the Union Hotel, and you will be politely served by Mr. A. A. Enke.

The merry-go-round with its wooden ponies and atrocious music is again in town gathering in all the small change in sight.

The meals to be had at the Sonoma House, now kept by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher, are the best to be had in any hotel north of San Francisco.

The Union Hotel bar, under the supervision of A. A. Enke, will be supplied with the very best of wines, whiskeys and cigars to be had in the market.

For Dry Goods, Clothing, Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery and also everything kept in a general merchandise store go to Schocken's, northside Plaza, Sonoma.

Buckingham's Dye for the whisks does its work thoroughly, coloring a uniform brown or black, which when dry, will neither rub, wash off, nor soil linen.

Gustav Wehr, formerly of this place, is conducting a burro station at Eastland, Mill Valley, Marin county, for the accommodation of visitors to Mount Tamalpais and other points of interest in that section.

The Union Hotel dining rooms since the recent change of proprietorship, have undergone a change for the better. Under the supervision of Mrs. S. E. Jones the tables are all that could be desired by the most fastidious epicure.

The late Dr. Wooster, who recently died in San Francisco and was buried in this place, left an estate worth $150,000. The entire property goes to the widow as a life estate, when it reverts to his three daughters.

A new belfry for the Catholic Church is being erected by J. M. Burke. When completed the new bell bought some time ago will be in position for use. This bell can be heard for a distance of twelve miles and cost $1,000.

The town and valley has been overrun with tramps the past week and some of our people have been feeding five and six every day. They do not appear to be heading in any particular direction, some going one way and some another.

On Tuesday last a tramp was observed on our streets in almost a nude state. He was arrested by officers Robin and Griffith, but was subsequently turned loose as there was no place in which to confine him, the town being without a jail. The man who is evidently demented, gave his name and address as O. Kennedy Clontarf, 871 Market street, San Francisco.

"During my service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending of Halsey, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow." For sale by all dealers.

Healdsburg canneries have paid out the present season $75,000 for labor alone. As Sonoma Valley is now more of a fruit than a wine producing section what's the matter with the merchants of Sonoma and the fruit-growers of the valley interesting themselves in the establishment of a cannery in this town in time for next season's crop. Such an enterprise in our midst would prove of great advantage to both town and valley. Who will be the first one to move in this matter? What is good for Healdsburg and other prosperous towns ought to be good for Sonoma.

If you don't take the INDEX-TRIBUNE you don't get the local news.

GORE.

A Rip Saw, a Pistol and Coffee for Two.

There was a lively encounter on the street in front of McHarvey's blacksmith shop on Tuesday morning last between two of Sonoma's oldest and most respected citizens, in which a rip saw, a cane and a six-shooter played a lively part. The squabble was over politics, and was the outcome of the Geary meeting in this town the other night. One of the parties accused the other of selling out to the Democrats and he was knocked down with a blow of the fist. Recovering his equilibrium, it is alleged he resented the blow with a rip saw, which he happened to have in his hand. For a few minutes there was a lively tussle when the combatant with the saw was placed hors du combat with a blow on the head with a six-shooter. Hostilities then ceased. Neither was seriously hurt. Warrants for the arrest of both were sworn out and their cases will be ventilated in Justice Cheney's Court next Saturday. Owing to the respectability and age of the parties we withhold names. Both have lived in Sonoma for forty years and this is the first time either has transgressed the law. Evidently this is going to be a lively campaign, anyhow.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR.

The Programme to be Presented on Each Evening.

How an Old Man Was Taken In.

Aaron Barnes of Sebastopol was married to Jessie Burke in 1885 and they lived together as man and wife until August, 1892, when she left him. Previous to the marriage the plaintiff deeded to the defendant $14,000 in personal property, and now he wishes to recover $20,000 in damages for breach of contract. The defendant appeared by demurrer before Judge Dougherty Monday, and while she admits the facts of desertion as alleged, she denies the conclusion and the breach of contract. In his judgment sustaining the demurrer Judge Dougherty says that as the sole consideration of the contract and transfer of the property was marriage and the marriage had been executed, therefore desertion afterwards could constitute no breach that would effect the property transfer to her, although the parties were not living together since 1892. The plaintiff sets up the plea that the defendant was not a worthy woman at the time of the marriage, and that it was a scheme on her part to obtain possession of his property and that part of the plan of the defendant was ultimately to leave him. To all this the defendant filed a demurrer and the Judge sustained the demurrer and granted ten days for the defendant to amend.—Santa Rosa Democrat.

THE GRAVES ESTATE.

Robert N. Graves, the half-brother of the late Wm. H. Graves, who has entered a contest in the Superior Court of this county to set aside the will of deceased which bequeathed most of his $2,000,000 estate to two children living in Europe, has also commenced another suit against the estate. The latter suit has been instituted in San Francisco and is to recover the sum of $33,800 claimed to be due for services rendered the deceased between 1870 and 1893. It will be recollected that Wm. H. Graves cut his brother Robert off, together with a number of other relatives, without a dollar.

GOSSIP.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL—OTHER MATTERS.

(Contributed by Marjorie Dow.)

Items of a personal and social nature are thankfully received at this office and will be edited by Marjorie Dow.

C. F. Leiding of Oakland was in town several days this week.

Sore throat in the early stages can be cured with honey taken warm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Johnson of Portland, Oregon, are the guests of relatives in this valley.

Miss Eva Legro has returned to her home in Santa Rosa after a visit with Sonoma friends.

Mrs. V. G. Robin, Mr. and Mrs. French and Paul Robin are the guests of City Marshal Robin.

Buggy riding, moonlight walks and confidential talks is the fashion with Sonoma's young people.

Perry Sears of San Francisco was in town last Sunday shaking hands with his many Sonoma friends.

Coughing may be quickly relieved by mixing barley water with honey and the juice of lemons, and drinking it warm.

Public speakers should freely use honey. The formic acid which it contains cures affections of the mouth, throat lungs and chest.

A heaping teaspoonful of honey stirred into a raw egg is a very good corrective for a cough, and should be continued for several mornings.

Miss Bertha Campbell of this place is taking a course of studies at the Normal School, Santa Rosa, with the intention of becoming a public school teacher.

Geo. Whallen of Modesto was in town last Wednesday shaking hands with his old Sonoma friends. Mr. Whallen is now a prosperous hotel keeper in Modesto.

Some one has said that a diet of oatmeal and brown bread tends to promote the growth of the hair. However this may be, the diet is a good one for many more assured reasons.

The Ladies' Fair, which will open in Union Hall on next Wednesday evening, the 17th inst., promises to be a great success. The ladies have been unceasing in their efforts to make it worthy of the patronage which is expected. Each evening an entirely new order of exercises will be carried out, in which talent from home and abroad will participate.

Thousands of tons of fruit are allowed to go to waste in our orchards annually that could be and should be saved. Much of the fruit that falls to the ground could be stewed and canned at a profit. It is the gleanings of corners and the watchful care in avoiding waste that often makes the difference between profitable and unprofitable fruit growing. Many a farmer could fatten several hogs upon the fruit which he annually allows to waste.

America Leads the World

The Crowning Glory of the Age.

Man's enterprise culminated at the World's Columbian Exposition. The memory of it will be a marvel for all time. The fame there acquired will live for years. The manufacturers of appreciate the award to them of highest honors at the Exposition. The significance of the compliment, the splendid character of the indorsement, cannot be underrated. It stamps Dr. Price's as without a peer among the baking powders. The jury of awards, an exceptionally intelligent body, was headed by the Chief Chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture. They found Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder strongest in leavening power, perfect in purity, and of uniform excellence.

It is a great mistake to peel potatoes before cooking them. The skin, like the bark of all medicinal roots, is the richest part of the tuber. Potatoes baked are more nutritious than prepared in any other form because, the valuable mineral salts are held in solution by the pellicle of the skin.

The Paducah, Ky., Standard says: "A young man who goes to see a girl twice a week for two years, goes walking every Sunday evening and takes her to different places of amusement, is legally engaged to her, no matter whether he says anything about marriage or not, and she can recover damages in a suit for breach of promise."

Most persons when they come in from the rain put their umbrellas in the rack with the handle upward. They should turn the handle down because when it is turned upward the water runs down the inside to the place where the ribs are joined to the handle and cannot get out, but stays rotting the cloth and rusting the metal until slowly dried away. If the handle is placed downward the water readily runs off and the umbrella dries almost immediately.

The princess, meanwhile, had no sooner disposed of the gnome than she prepared for instant flight. She had a good, stout maize ear ready at hand, which a touch of the rod transformed into an enormous eagle, and as she lightly leaped upon his back he soared into the air and bore her away. Floating high above the mountain peaks, her sharp eyes scanned the varying panorama below until they distinguished the valley of pines. With a steady hand she guided the eagle's flight to the spot where Idanha and his braves were waiting, and as the bird bore her in safety to the ground she threw herself, delicious with joy, upon her lover's breast.

After wrestling long with the hateful problem, the gnome finally completed his task and returned to lay the results at the feet of the maid. But when he found no trace of her either in the grove, the grotto or the garden a dark suspicion flashed across his mind. Instantly rising to the height of the clouds, he spied his fair prisoner, her lover and his braves just crossing the boundary of his domain, beyond which he had no power. With a wild howl of rage, he gathered up some clouds in his fist and hurled them after the fugitives. A terrific thunderstorm broke over their heads and the feminine portion of it, in particular, the gnome dashed madly into the tempest he had caused and best suited to his humor. Then, taking a last look at earth, which had suddenly grown hateful to him, with the thunder and lightning, wind and rain raging and warping and gashing about him, he threw himself headlong down the mountain side into the bowels of the earth and resumed the sway of his subterranean kingdom.

But the path he plowed through the rugged rocks as he shot downward still remains, like a gigantic causeway, and will in all likelihood endure thus till time is gray. Truly "the evil that men do live after them"—and the same may be said of spirits. The good that Hal-Walla had done was soon forgotten, and he was remembered only as the evil spirit, who had wickedly abducted the fair princess. And as the generations came and went these rocks, marking the place of his violent descent, received the name of the "Devil's Slide."—Frederic Morris in Short Stories.

A Pretty Failure.

They had all the earmarks of a bridal couple as they boarded the Chicago train at Broad street station. There were half a score of friends on the platform who had come to say goodbye. A few grains of rice dropped from the young man's hat brim as he entered the parlor car. He carefully escorted his fair partner to a seat. All the other passengers smiled indulgently and looked interested. Then the young man extended his hand to the young woman and said in a very loud voice, and with most commonplace formality: "Well, Miss Blank, the train is about to pull out. I wish you a very pleasant journey." And doffing his soft hat he hurriedly left the car.

The passengers looked disappointed, the young woman looked nervous. By and by she called the porter and whispered to him. The porter nodded his head and passed to the rear of the car. He came back in a moment and said in a voice that was audible to every one in the car: "Ye're all right, ma'am. He's in the smoking compartment." Everybody snickered, and the bride blushed prettily. —Philadelphia Record.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by all dealers.

A clear Head

WHY? Because he follows these rules: "Keep the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels open." You can have a clear head and live to be ninety if you do the same thing. When the bowels fail to move during the day take on retiring two Smith's Small Blue Beans. Their action is so mild that you are not aware of it. All day your mind will be clear and cool. "Not a gripe in a barrel of them." Ask for small size. Take no substitute for SMITH'S
